

CLING TO CHRIST

VERSE 1      C                      G                      C/E              F
Father I can come to you and boast of deeds I've done,
                 C                      G                      C/E              F
In my pride I strive to earn the favor Christ has won
                 G                      F                      C/E              F              C/E      F
He alone pleads my acceptance, all my works a - side
                 C                      G                      F              C              F      | C/E      G
So I come with empty hands, and I cling to Christ.

VERSE 2      C                      G                      C/E              F
Father I can go astray and battle needless fears
                 C                      G                      C/E              F
Voices tell me I'm condemned, and that I can't draw near
                 G                      F                      C/E              F              C/E      F
But your Spirit calls me homeward with your words of life
                 C                      G              F              C
Jesus bore my every sin, so I cling to Christ

BRIDGE      Dm7      Am
It's more than I can do
                 F              G
To keep my hold on You
                 Dm7              Am
But all my hope and peace
                 F              G (repeat bridge)
Is that you cling to me

VERSE 3      C                      G                      C/E              F
Father, all my earthly aims in time will turn to dust
                 C                      G                      C/E              F
Let me learn that loss is gain, for those who know your love
                 G                      F                      C/E              F              C/E      F
All the treasures of this world will never sa - tis - fy
                 C                      G              F              Am
You alone are endless joy, so I cling to Christ.

TO END      C                      G              F              C
You alone are endless joy, so I cling to Christ.
